

SECTIONAL PLAYOFF POINT SYSTEM

Sectional Representation:

At the conclusion of the seven (7) week season, the eight teams with the highest first level points in each classification will be selected for the Sectional Tournament, except Class DD and D in which the top four with the highest first level points will selected. The team with the highest point total will be seeded 1st, the next highest total will be 2nd, etc., until all teams are seeded 1 through 8 (1 through 4).

Connors & Ferris Bowl Games:

For the 2011 season, the Connors and Ferris Bowls will be one game only for the first two teams in each classification that do not qualify for the Sectional Tournament). For Classes AA, A, B, and C, The 9th and 10th seeded teams at the end of the seven game schedule will qualify for the Connors and Ferris Bowl. For Classes SS and D, the 5th and 6th seeded teams will qualify. All Connors and Ferris Bowl Games will be played at Sahlen Stadium.

Awards for these games are as follows:

- a. Sportsmanship Award for each team.
- b. MVP for each team.
- c. Championship Bowl for winning team.

Teams that do not qualify for either the Sectional Tournament or the Connors and Ferris Bowl games may schedule additional contests, not to exceed a total of nine games.

Tie Breakers:

1. Should a tie exist between two or more teams involved in this selection or seeding, the first tie breaker is the result of head-to-head competition between the tied teams, if such competition occurred.
2. Should a tie still exist, the tie breaking criteria will be as follows, in the order listed.
 - a. The team with the most second level points.
 - b. Opponents total win-lose percentage.
 - c. Coin Toss.

Awarding First Level Points:

Throughout the season, points are tabulated and based on the following formula:

Points System

- +7 points – Defeat a team 2 or more classes higher than your team
- +6 points – Defeat a team 1 classification higher than your team
- +5 points – Defeat a team in your classification or lower than your team
- 5 points – Lose to a team in your classification or lower than your team
- 4 points – Lose to a team 1 classification higher than your team
- 3 points – Lose to a team 2 or more classifications higher than your team

Note: (1) An Independent schooling playing up, one or more classification, is limited to +6 and -4 Points only. (2) Teams who are not scheduled to participate in the Section V Tournament, all games will be +5 or -5 points.

Class AA - 1000 and above.....Class A - 600 to 999.....Class B - 400 to 599
Class C – 260-399.....Class D - 259 and below

Awarding Second Level Points:

1. Second level points are awarded only for a win.
2. Second level points are the full value of points if a defeated opponent is victorious (team A defeats team B and team B defeats team C, Team A would receive team B's first level points at the 2nd level).
3. No second level points are awarded for an open date on an opponent's schedule.
